- Simmontemplar:
- Auriah: yes
- Dosts: it's going to be a challenge to shift gears after watching the debates for the past hour....weird man weird

- Piandjo: hi
- Jim h: There seems to have been break between us and our ancestors
- Hawklady: just didn't take shower as much as we do
- Beckysunnybrook: I don't see any difference in now or then.
- Lost horizon: lol
- Simmontemplar: Good to see you Piandjo!
- Pathworld: they had no face book lol
- Beckysunnybrook: Right Hawklady
- Lost horizon: nor any other book mostly, Path
- Beckysunnybrook: They didn't have FB But they did have town squares
- Pathworld: true
- Jim h: Sense of community has diminished
- Auriah: it seems we confused information for understanding
- Lost horizon: they had better memories as well
- Hawklady: I agree LH
- Beckysunnybrook: They told the same story so it was easy to remember I am sure.
- Auriah: what was once felt and lived, is now rote.
- Lost horizon: literacy destroyed reliance on memory » starting after Gutenberg

» before a lot was oral tradition

Piandjo: with a written ritual, there was less reliance on the effort to remember themselves?

Lost horizon: (not to mention what Auriah just said)

Beckysunnybrook: Living plays

- Lost horizon: Piandjo - I wasn't thinking of ritual or self-remembering, but that's an interesting question
- Hawklady: yes which slowly lost it's message and became just a sho » show
- Simmontemplar: I prepare my "space" and gathered myself attention

- Pathworld: i turned off debate
- Auriah: physically i went to the computer and logged in, i got my book, pencil and turned off the tv, and other distractions... and center myself internally
- Markroche: i light some incense
- Piandjo: when i came here this evening, i made a conscious wish to give my attention to the group (while claspng my hands in a prayer gesture.)
- Auriah: I bring my attention, and presence
- Hawklady: make sure the dogs are feed and have done their business, so i don't have distraction
- Lost horizon: Today was unusual... I walked into starbucks and unpacked my laptop and plugged it in, etc.
- Auriah: yes
- Jim h: Read quietly before.Burn cam Uncover my matrix and light beacon. Compose self
- Auriah: I noticed a sense of anticipation an elevastionin sensing
- Hawklady: Once i see David, I connect to his heart center
- Jim h: Burn candles and incense
- Auriah: i noticed that my mood was already shifting
- Jim h: Preparation ritual
- Lost horizon: although it's a public place dealing with a type of self-indulgence, I notice that my attention is very different coming here with the intent to join the class than coming here for food or drink
- Auriah: simply from the intent to go and be presence
- Piandjo: i notice a soft warm energy, containing light, descending on me.
- Auriah: *present
- Lost horizon: I feel the presence of the space through the screen
- Markroche: i also often do the may all these efforts.... three times
- Lost horizon: yes, I'm currently in starbucks
- Beckysunnybrook: something in my space came to me and it was painful, just before this meeting began. It had deep meaning
- Simmontemplar: connecting with the "soul" group
- Lost horizon: (please read the follow up comments)
 - » ok, will do
- Piandjo: dan, i also feel the same through the screen. interesting. It descends into my heart.
- Hawklady: yes Simmon, I do that at times as well, thanks for the reminder
 - Simmontemplar: you see!! ?? it worked Hawk L !!
 - Hawklady:
 - Simmontemplar:
 - Auriah: yes
 - » like a church
 - Jim h: yes -with reverence
 - Lost horizon: yes
 - Auriah: a church without walls
 - » was cut off "i noticed that my mood was already shifting simply from the intent to go and be presence"
 - » *present
- Jim h: Fear is good -awakening machine
- Lost horizon: yes, it is different

- Jim h: Yes - space has density
- Mollymidway: i'm a machine that is mostly very hot, sweating, and no you can't harvest it...it's too dense...
- Piandjo: yes jim, the space is not more dense, like congealed light, which is warm. almost swooning in effect.
- Beckysunnybrook: I know this is true.
- Piandjo: is NOW more dense,
- Beckysunnybrook: there is a church without walls
- Jim h: Feel like a continuum - one uniform space
- Mollymidway: but outside the machine i'm in a kind of bliss...i do what i can to integrate so not to hurt others...i'm very happy we're all together
- Beckysunnybrook: and it has come to me today.
» this church without walls
- Pathworld: yes
- Lost horizon: before, I sensed the space outside myself, now I feel like I'm part of it more
- Piandjo: church without walls is it exactly
- Auriah: (sorry, the David asked if the space felt like a church? my answer was yes, it felt like a church with out walls. but the space has been built none the less.
- Mollymidway: church without walls, invisible magnificence

- Auriah: yes, molly
- Mollymidway: i'm dependent on tools, though, and i have a long long way to go » but i'm still glad we're all together
- Auriah: as do we all .
- Lost horizon: perhaps each of us is a stained glass window for this church
- Piandjo: They now be we
- Jim h: WOW! Lost
- Piandjo: stained glass window each! spot on.
- Simmontemplar: yes LH !!
 - Simmontemplar: yes LH !!
 - Piandjo: LH, are you holding this space you have shared in a starbucks?
 - Jim h: An intentional community
 - Lost horizon: yes, I feel responsible for it
 - Beckysunnybrook: Even though it is on technology on computers, it is still feeling very together, no separation.
- » reached across the spaces
 - Lost horizon: keeping my attention on it
 - Beckysunnybrook: I want to thank everyone for your efforts. It means a great deal to me today.
 - Simmontemplar: therefore we take ..."communion"
 - Markroche: attention
 - Piandjo: Charles Leadbeater's Science of the Sacraments describe the morphology of the temple not built with hands. Beautiful paintings.
 - Beckysunnybrook: coming together with an intention to find out more about what we are.
 - Jim h: Sacrifice machine distractions
 - Auriah: presence and attention

- Lost horizon: attention and presence
- Pathworld: our love
- Auriah: our willingness to acquiesce
- Lost horizon: ^^
- Hawklady: awareness
- Lost horizon: becoming as transparent to the space as possible
- Muspelspark3: attention
- Piandjo: we can give more to the space by loving it. opening to it.
- Hawklady: Oh nice piandjo,
- Markroche: also, i put up the Love Orb and typed in Hidden Work Reading Group, and left it open
- Jim h: Wow - I feel that Piandjo
- Lost horizon: Thank you for that, Mark
- Markroche:
- Simmontemplar: we are creating the higher emotion needed for the invocation
- Piandjo: tx,hawklady. Seems i have been affected by someone with whom i have been working.
- Lost horizon: << yes
- Hawklady: when i close my eyes I fee more in the space, moving through the tunnels, as we build them
- Pathworld: show more grace, more elegentyi love u all thsi much (
- Hawklady: *feel
- Pathworld:)
- Hawklady: *feel
- Pathworld:)
- Lost horizon: sure
- Piandjo: hard to believe Dan can do this in a starbucks. Means we can do it anywhere!
- Mollymidway: starbucks rocks
- Piandjo: i'll have a cup of your daily special
- Lost horizon: that's true, Piandjo

» it's an interesting exercise, to hold this in this environment my biggest distraction from the space seems to be thinking for typing in the chat
 » not to mention the ego boost when people like what I have to say... lol » yes, definitely was a cone of silence

Auriah: I know when I have created the space correctly, I notice if the space is right sojourner spirit moves into the space to voyage, but if I am not in presence and the space is not contained she lies just outside the door and waits...

- Lost horizon: nice that you have that feedback, Auriah!
- Jim h: I can send the log.
- Mollymidway: yes, that's how it is with animals...they are good! dogs are patient. they just love you.
 period
 - Piandjo: very nice, auriah. waiting by the door..
 - Hawklady: can i borrow him next wednesday
 - Jim h: Hard to let go

» of the space

» so I won't

- Auriah: yes, i agree jim
- Piandjo: perhaps we have zoned into another space where not much needs to be said.
- Hawklady: yes piandjo
- Pathworld: so when we log off does that close the space ?or do we close it
- Jim h: We could have said nothing all night and that would be fine
- Piandjo: good question, Path. Maybe we have that choice.
- Hawklady: it changes as some people still stay connected and others log off
- Hawklady: it changes as some people still stay connected and others log off

» for good and move on

- Pathworld: is logging off enough?
- Auriah: i think the cathedrals were designed and built to emulate the magnificence of these spaces, the quality, resounding silent vibration, and grace ...
- Lost horizon: yes, have felt that before in a monastery
- Markroche: so, clearly, Norton Street, and the other plays are designed to some extent for taking a group through a sequence of moods and prayers
- Simmontemplar: But the Essential Self is "always" at hand !
- Hawklady: what do you think Path?
- Piandjo: Auriah, check out the Leadbeater reference given earlier. You will like the illustrations, and the text.
- Pathworld: ask my question plz
- Beckysunnybrook: Grace. Grace descends

» from what happened, the proof of a higher person has been given thru.

» a veil opened

Auriah: nice thanks Pi

- Pathworld: Thank you space
- Jim h: I feel it thinning out
- Lost horizon: Ditto
- Pathworld: Thank you fellow voyagers
- Lost horizon: Thank you, David and all
- Jim h: Love to you all
- Mollymidway: thanks for coming, ty david and all
- Lost horizon: appropriate - we are closing, and so is starbucks
- Markroche: that's funny Lost
 - Piandjo: thank you everyone. a special experience tonight.
 - Hawklady: post it notes
 - Piandjo: nice, Lost
 - Markroche: thank you all
 - Pathworld: leave yellow sticy note
 - Hawklady: it makes me feel sad to end this space tonight
 - Pathworld: i will put it into my glass art

- Mollymidway: thanks for coming tell your friends!
- Hawklady: thank you David, Ivan and everyone
- Pathworld: Thank you all
- Auriah: Thank you David and Iven, Susan and everyone!
