- Silverdale: Harry - I really like your and Arsi's post on Wings ... I felt like I might have written that ...
- Piandjo: thank you, George. That is a high compliment.
- » I enjoyed working with her on this chapter.

- Lost horizon: "Way of the Pilgrim"
- Silverdale: George - Seattle
- Markroche: technique--popcorn exercise
- Piandjo: good evening hawklady. hope you are feeling ok
- Lost horizon: Agenbite... what an inwit
- Adlucem: I was going to has how things were in Inwit
- Silverdale: The active attention and presence of the essential self will assist in the awakening of the machine ...
- Hawklady: thank you Pandjo, and you?
- Piandjo: well, thanks
- Simmontemplar: "begging"
- Auriah: I'm here!
- Adlucem: Hi!
- Lost horizon: Hi, Auriah
- Hawklady: yeah
- Simmontemplar: "...drop the poor man's bag"
- Silverdale: Welcome!
- Hawklady: it is also giving power away,
- Markroche: it's also needing, its also putting ourselves at the mercy of what we are supplicating to
- Susankester: Hi auriah
- Susankester: Hi auriah
- Piandjo: duality characterizes supplication
- Auriah: had to drop off the lil munchikin
  - » hi susan
- Markroche: it is the opposite of reorigining ourselves
- Lost horizon: In supplication, we feel needy, lacking, and ask for what we think will fill that need
- Auriah: hi hawk
- Piandjo: hi auriah
- Auriah: Hi Pi!

- Lost horizon: It reinforces that duality
- Hawklady: make a carpet
- Simmontemplar: to make ...as a piece of work
- Beckysunnybrook: To make a carpet is a good analogy.
- Simmontemplar: ??
- Jim h: Make with our entire being
- Beckysunnybrook: It isn't a duality once it's made. It is whole.
- » the carpet
- Hawklady: well its behind them
- Lost horizon: In the sense of weaving, Becky?
- Beckysunnybrook: As it is being done it would seem it is a dual process until it is finished.
- Hawklady: very nice Simmon, a piece of work, i love that
- Simmontemplar: Tks Hawk L
- Beckysunnybrook: yes, Lost. I was agreeing with hawklady on the carpet idea.
- Lost horizon: Prayer Absolute = giving back
- Simmontemplar: by Remorse of Conscience
- Adlucem:
- Jim h: giving of ourselves
- Markroche: seems like when we pray we are giving the Absolute an access point
- Jim h: Karma?
- Simmontemplar: good go Jimmy!
- Beckysunnybrook: Is original sin like being in an unconsciousness
- » not knowing
- Adlucem: Yes
- Beckysunnybrook: innocent
- Markroche: sort of like the flute of Krishna-gives God an instrument to see and play and realize through
- Lost horizon: the word "original" seems significant
- Jim h: S
- Agenbite: Maybe more identified than innocent....
- Adlucem: Of Knowing we exist
- Beckysunnybrook: yes, it does Lost. Original, there is a clue there.
- » An innocent person is young, and not knowing yet, also, feels very original, and important to the self, not others, just self, selfishness
- Markroche: which is why Joyces book, which is about sleeping at night, is called Finnegans Wake
- Lost horizon: perhaps the Adam and Eve story is about our collective consciousness, not a couple of individual organic primates
- » there was a point of separation
- Simmontemplar: could that be equated to Karma in other tradition?
- Lost horizon: everything that follows from that separation just reinforces it
- Auriah: and he didn't even buy me dinner!

- Beckysunnybrook: It seems to me before eating the fruit of good and bad, they were innocent. It may be that eating the fruit isn't passed down by dna, it may be an individuals work
- » collective consciousness seems to be not have eaten yet.
- Lost horizon: (more to say on that, Becky, but it's too involved for this chat)
- Markroche: Claude talks about re-origining ourselves to the perspective of the Infinite, sin is believing ourselves to be separate sillydillys
- Lost horizon: exactly, Mark
- » Thank you
- Beckysunnybrook: I am trying to share on this chat in case there is need for participation
Lost. It isn't just speaking to you alone.
- Lost horizon: I realize that
- Markroche:
- Lost horizon: I just didn't want to write tomes here
- » and distract from the main subject
- Beckysunnybrook: No need to answer this. I am only commenting from myself and on what I see others sharing here.
- » It's all the Main Subject. LOL
- Lost horizon: no problem... just that David has the floor right now
- Beckysunnybrook: Thanks David!
- that's really good to see.
- » both ways, bio and angel
- Adlucem: Wow.
- Beckysunnybrook: for the chats sake, my comment is thanking David for saying we all are angelic beings.
- Lost horizon: It's so wonderful that we have these HBMs to work with, and that we can work
- » gratitude
- Beckysunnybrook: Every move we make is prayer.
- Jim h: Focus on Thy Will Be Done
- Hawklady: yes, LH
- Vadere: prayer through movement
- Lost horizon: "sin" as accumulated substance - the "Pig Pen" syndrome
- » (as in the Peanuts comic)
- Auriah: good image LH!
- Vadere: Kathleen
- Auriah: we carry our sin/baggage everywhere we go, it emanates out of us, around us, and it clouds our perspective
- Beckysunnybrook: yay!
- » the beginning of it
- Simmontemplar: Question: could you explain why from present to the past?
- Beckysunnybrook: so there is a union of the end and beginning?
- Auriah: i was referencing LH's comment about Pigpen.
- Beckysunnybrook: you find the question is in the answer?
- Auriah: thanks LH
- Lost horizon:

- Auriah: I always thought of it this way: we work on our current life but as we return each lifetime we learn earlier and earlier...
- Jim h: Recapitulation - as Castenada practice
- Markroche: seems to relate to eternal recurrence, and perfecting the lif--and since we are now in the present thats where we work from
- Beckysunnybrook: yes
- Markroche: EJ once said a few months ago that really its the present that makes the past
- Beckysunnybrook: yes!
- Markroche: more than the other way around
- Auriah: we "remember" earlier and earlier and awaken earlier in each return to perfect our "life"
- » with each breath...
- » nice SD!
- Beckysunnybrook: how true. washing dishes is a sacred movement when you are really there and know you are.
- Adlucem: These moments were usually so painful as well
- Simmontemplar: Thanks Ivan, David and all companions for your great insight
- Piandjo: nice,auriah
- » mark, by changing the present we change our past, and by changing the past we change our future.
- Auriah: i often see myself in others and see my past behaviors mirrored in others and think "Wow! huh! I bet this is how I looked when I was manifesting the other day/time... how interesting, what a gem this is to see it."
- Hawklady: oh i realy like that Piandjo
- Auriah: And other times i'm just manifesting. Lol!
- Piandjo: tx hawklady
- Lost horizon: lol Au
- Susankester: ty auriah,perfect for m
- Auriah: yw
- Adlucem: beautiful
- Lost horizon: wow
- » Thank you, Spinoza
- Beckysunnybrook: What Auriah said is judge as you shall be judged. It is just exactly that way. You see something distasteful in others.. and you see yourself.
- Maybe repairing the machine is by not looking for faults in others.
- Maybe repairing the machine is by not looking for faults in others.
- » yes. true. suspended
- Jim h: observe the machine
- Beckysunnybrook: that is hard to do.
- » your own machine, not others.
- Auriah: In thos moments Becky I'm not judging, just watching, its fascinating, and judgement isnt even a factor... its just clarity.
- Simmontemplar: Remain in the act of Presence and hold on tight to the cleansing radiation
- Auriah: YES! what David said.
- Markroche: keep invoking presence so that the machine energies can merge more with and be healed by the essential self
- Jim h: Put attention on it

- » Look at all the mechanicalites
- Adlucem: Then it knows it's being observed and changes
- Beckysunnybrook: It seems that the more you look the more you see that the manifestations aren't really you.
- » forces that be, not you
- Jim h: The Observer - essential self
- Beckysunnybrook: You are not the forces surrounding and going in and out in talk and things.
- Auriah: it's not the ego of the machine observing... it comes from the being, the essential self
- » yes jim
- Beckysunnybrook: The attention is not any "thing" or "force". It is still and unmoving.
- Hawklady: yes i'm her
- » here
- Beckysunnybrook: Hi, I see you Hawklady
- Hawklady: where is that ladder
- Agenbite: Good comments on this log!
