  - » (my two cents)
- 7:14 Jim h: Words are flexible symbols or signposts for the concepts
- 7:14 Piandjo: David, i felt pretty much the same way last week!! Part of me said "What did i do, or have i done?"
  - » David was in a different chamber?
- 7:14 Silverdale: The difference between the inspiration of the Essential Self and the automaticity of the historical personality ...
- 7:14 Lost horizon: This sounds like movement from one chamber to another

- 7:17 Silverdale: May I tip my hat inseat?
- 7:18 Jim h: Essence question?

» = real question

- 7:19 Simmontemplar: Practically for me it makes it real when you put behind that question something that is essential for your life
- 7:19 Pathworld: ask for a volunteer
- 7:19 Auriah: a sincere and earnest inquiry, from essence, not ego or self importance
- 7:21 Pathworld: yes thank you susan
- 7:21 Piandjo: Perhaps we can share the task. I can take the phone either tonight or next week.
- 7:21 Simmontemplar: Good idea Pi; we can take turns

- 7:27 Hawklady: thanks Auriah
- 7:28 Pathworld: would a real question mean that you are willing to work with the answer for a period of time
- 7:28 Piandjo: Like your idea, Path. How could it be otherwise? if a real question.
- 7:29 Pathworld: plz real my real question ?lol
- 7:29 Lost horizon: (17 viewers logged in)
- 7:29 Simmontemplar: Yes Path, I think a question like that would take a time to have a form
- 7:29 Pathworld: read*
- 7:29 Susankester: Thank you, such a swift call to action, truly amazing. What a great and loving way to help, sharing to work.
- 7:30 Piandjo: A real question is one the answer to which will save my bacon.
