

Archangel Zadkiel I invoke you with every Breath
All lower energies please take them and transmute
With your light to a higher death

Find a home to what is unseen and find what needs death
Help me seek in your name what is irresolute
Archangel Zadkiel I invoke you with every Breath

Let my body align with this conversion
As well as my heart which is raw and red as bloodroot
With your light to a higher death

The fear loses hold on me with exhalation
And held by your arms in awe; still and mute
Archangel Zadkiel I invoke you with every Breath

Again I inhale and exhale as my lungs become your wings
Archangel Zadkiel I invoke you with every Breath
With your light to a higher death
