- 7:23 Piandjo: the unrelenting task of walking and chewing gum at the same time!
- 7:24 Jim h: She believed she would be healed
- 7:24 Silverdale: And typing correctly before sending ...
- 7:24 Markroche: faith, and a kind of spiritual state, had ye but faith ye could move mountains, a sort of spiritual placebo effect in a good way

- 7:27 Pathworld: hi all i made it on to justin - used- foxfire
- 7:27 Hawklady: welcome
- 7:28 Pathworld: ty
- 7:28 Markroche: one way to get there: Krishnamurthi's method of choiceless observation, so that 'good' and 'bad' become almost archaic concepts replaced by serviceful or not
- 7:28 Silverdale: Welcome Path ... glad your connection worked ...
- 7:28 Lost horizon: great, Path - welcome
- 7:29 Markroche: including choiceless observation of our own selves so that everything is a matter of observing process rather than pronouncing judgements
- 7:30 Lost horizon: (84 viewers, 17 signed in)
- 7:30 Piandjo: nice, Mark
- 7:33 Markroche: one example of sphere of influence is us paying attention to the machine
- 7:33 Jim h: sphere of influence - area of expertise
- 7:33 Batthra: thank you,Mark
- 7:33 Markroche: and the wind on the water effect that doing so can have on our evolutionary process
» and on waking up the machine

- 7:37 Vadere: to create a high level of sacredness something need to be excluded but that exclusion limits freedom
- 7:38 Jim h: The Beings act through us in some way
» and we can be blunt instruments

- 7:41 Piandjo: Is there a difference between reflection, radiation, and emanation? All are influences, but do they act differently? Our responses may also differ.
- 7:45 Silverdale: Good questions and distinctions P. ...
- 7:45 Piandjo: moons reflect, planets radiate, and suns emanate.
» true?

- 7:45 Silverdale: Good point P.
- 7:47 Markroche: on a certain level doing orbs for another or for the benefit of all beings everywhere is also an example of sphere of influence
» as is SL Prosperity Ashram, in both directions

- 7:50 Jim h: This is an example
» us

- 7:51 Markroche: actually, in many directions
- 7:52 Piandjo: As a working group voyaging together in invocational space, are we now beginning to emanate for the first time, creating order and not just reflecting it.?
- 7:52 Markroche: and the alliance between each of us and our PVA avatar also forms a kind of work circle
- 7:53 Piandjo: nice point, Mark.
- 7:53 Markroche: as do most of the meetings there
- 7:58 Piandjo: Is it not difficult for an individual to host an angelic presence, but less so for a harmonious group?
- 7:58 Markroche: PVA seems to be a lot about creating portals for energies to come through, for creating expanded spheres of influence » not just between us but also connecting with other realms

» Thanks David, Tamara, Dan, whoever else is there, Susan, and All

- 8:04 Lost horizon: Thank you, everyone
- 8:04 Silverdale: Thanks David, Tamara, One & All for participation in this evening's invocational circle.
- 8:04 Jim h: Thank you all
- 8:04 Hawklady: thanks everyone, have a good week
- 8:04 Piandjo: thanks everyone. New territory awaits us. Thank you David and Tamara.
- 8:04 Jinjerogers: thank you, great session
- 8:05 Pathworld: Thank you all and David and Tamara
