

The Fourth Hall

The Archangel Michael

The Opening

A powerful warrior of light and one of the most recognizable Archangels with his symbolic sword of truth, protective shield and cloak to protect and serve all who call upon him.

His is the ability to bring protection as well as to cut away that which is no longer needed in our lives. His Angelic energy may still be called upon during shamanic cord cutting rituals in order to insure the cords are permanently severed and rapid healing takes place.

If an individual is ready to move beyond the old concepts and beliefs, this Archangel will surely support in the cutting of the old ties that bind.

He clears the path of obstacles, he gives us strength and courage to carry on during the dark times in our lives. He fills us with hope, inspiration, and faith that the Universe is always on our side.

His signature color is deep royal blue and he's often been depicted symbolically slaying a serpent or dragon.

Archangel Michael is referred to as the greatest of all angels, he loves to help all who call upon him,

He is more than just an Archangel for enlightenment, he is an Angel for awareness. Michael appears when needed to be of support, assistance and protection in any situation.

Michael's energy, it is not only the power to cut through limitation and falsehood but also the light that allows us to discern the truth from the fabrication.

In writings Archangel Michael finds a place in all cultures and faiths through out the world, what ever your beliefs He is the ultimate angelic protector.

. Both in Medieval Christianity in the New Age World, Archangel Michael is known as the patron saint of police officers, paramedics and the military.

Archangel Michael is present in many sacred sites ,shrines ,statues and places of power are found all around the world on earth and as well on the etheric plane.

In art, St. Michael is represented standing over the defeated dragon who he has just pierced with a lance. He also holds a pair of scales in which he weighs the souls of departed.

. He shall not fold his Cosmic Wings about him to return home until the final Angelic Being is freed, the last man is redeemed and the last Elemental returned to its perfect state. This is the love of Lord Michael, who like many others, is a Prisoner of Love to the life he serves.

The Reading of the Fourth Hall

The Fourth Angelic Choir

Michael is the ruler of the Fourth Angelic Choir or Hall.

The location of this hall in the Kabalistic Tree of Life is generally regarded as the Sefhira Hod. Hod sits at the base of the Pillar of Severity, on the side of the tree where descending forces lead to manifestation.

In the cosmos, Hod is where the forces of nature are given form prior to manifestation, becoming particulars.

Hod could be said to represent the mind, or the imagination, both cosmically and personally.

Here, Michael is the bringer of light to the mind. Michael's sword could be regarded as the sword of the Bodhisattva Manjushri, which cuts through ignorance and falsehood. It is the faculty of discrimination, the crest jewel of Eastern philosophy.

Hod is associated with higher knowledge and magic, and with the gods Hermes (or Mercury) and Thoth, whose attributes correspond exactly to this Sefhira, and which are also associated with Michael, notably the role of psychopomp, guiding departed souls or weighing them against a feather to determine their fate according to Impartial Justice and Objective Merit.

In this role, Michael's sword is for cutting the ties of physical existence and freeing one from the reverberations of organic life, which at another level is also a kind of discrimination, that of the essential self against the assaults of the historical personality. In this regard, Michael's sword is available to us, with its double edges of attention and presence.

So what does it mean to move into the light of the Fourth Hall, and lose the reverberations of organic life? What is the state of High Indifference?

I offer this reading from E.J. Gold's "Angels Healing Journey":

Fourth Hall

In the Fourth Hall there is no desire to possess objects, no impulse to discover new things. A cold wind blows so violently that, in the blink of an eye, an immense space is devastated.

The oceans are a mere pool, the planets bits of mud, the sun just a dim spark in an endless sea of fire, the phenomenal world an empty corpse.

Just so that the First Adam might descend to the phenomenal world, hosts of angels were consumed; that Noah might build the ark, millions of creatures perished in the flood; that Jesus might possess the Secret of the Christ, millions took the Christian vows; that Mohammed might ascend to Heaven for a single night, millions of souls were pillaged.

In the Fourth Hall, nothing of the phenomenal world, neither ancient nor modern, has any meaning. If a whole world burned, it would be only the dream of an angel. If Heaven and Earth were vaporized into atoms it would mean no more than a leaf falling from a tree; if the universe were annihilated in a single instant, leaving no trace of men or angels, it would be no more than the mystery of a single drop of water from which all the brilliant, sparkling, dazzling shattered fragments of light called the phenomenal world were formed.

The Prayer to Michael

I will now give a morning and evening prayer to St. Micha-el. We will use this to invoke the protection of this Celestial Being. It is best said aloud in multiples of three so I will say it 3 x.

Lord Micha-el before!

Lord Micha-el behind!

Lord Micha-el to the right!

Lord Micha-el above!

Lord Micha-el below!

Lord Micha-el Lord Micha-el wherever I go!

I AM his love protecting here!

I AM his love protecting here!

I AM his love protecting here!

Let us now call upon him to keep watch over us:

MICHA-EL

YOU WHO ARE THE WATCHER

YOU WHO ARE THE PRINCE OF THE HEAVENLY HOSTS and COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CELESTIAL ARMY

YOU WHO LOOKS LIKE GOD

YOU WHO IS AS GOD

YOU WITH SAFFRON HAIR AND 6 WINGS OF GREEN TOPAZ

YOU WHO SING HOLY,HOLY,HOLY AROUND THE THRONE OF GOD

YOU WHOSE LOVE IS UNCONDITIONAL

YOU WHO LIGHTS THE WAY

YOU WHOSE SPIRIT IS FIRE AND LIGHTENING

YOU WHOSE BELOVED PLANET IS MERCURY

YOU WHOSE DAY IS WEDNESDAY

YOU WHO LOVES THE ALMOND TREE

YOU WHOSE DUTY IS TO MAKE WISE OR FOOLISH,

BE OUR PROTECTOR AND DEFEND US IN BATTLE AS WE SEEK TO DO GOD'S HOLY WILL. KEEP YOUR VIGILANCE TURNED IN OUR DIRECTION AND WATCH OVER US. HELP US TO KEEP OUR MINDS FOCUSED UPON OUR HIGHER SELF SO THAT WE MIGHT GIVE GLORY TO THE LORD FOREVER AND EVER.

Micha-el!

Lend me your sword,

so that I conquer the dragon in me

Imbue me of your strength,

So that I subdue, annihilate the spirits

That want to paralyze me.

Act in me so vividly

As to resplend the light of my I

So that I'll be conducted to acts worthy of you.

AMEN

Now Feel archangel warping himself all around you from head to toe and feel him in heart, allow your heart to expand and now feel yourself expand

The Closing

Archangel Micheal we are grateful for this blessing which you have granted us, thank you.

May this effort be for the benefit of all beings every where
